

Modals

Need(Semi-Modal)

Need as a main verb(Non auxiliary)

Require/be in the need of

He needs a house.

They need food.

I need your help.

She needs your guidance.

We need your support.

I need your book.

I need a bike.

Raju needs a laptop.

He needed some money yesterday.

I needed a car last week.

I don't need your help.

He doesn't need your support.

Do you need my help?

Does he need anything?

What do you need?

What does he need?

Need+to infinitive

I need to talk to you.

He needs to buy some books.

She needs to lose some weight.

They need to practise English daily.

We need to take an appointment before.

I don't need to talk to anyone.

You don't need to stay there.

He doesn't need to pay the bill.

Do you need to go there?

Does he need to come here?

Need as a modal verb (Auxiliary verb)

Used mainly in negative sentences to indicate that something is not necessary.

You need not wait for me.

We need not go to the party.

We need not stay there.

You need not give any explanation.

He need not apologize to them.

You need not come here daily.

I need not talk to him.

In questions

Need I go to the party?

Yes, you must.

No, you needn't. ✓

Need I attend the meeting?

Need I buy a laptop?